Civil Action No. 3:09-CV-2345-L

ORDER

Before the court are the Findings and Recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge, filed January 8, 2010. Petitioner did not file objections.

This is a habeas petition filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254. United States Magistrate Judge Jeff Kaplan found that the petition should be denied because Petitioner raises no federal constitutional issue that would entitle her to federal habeas relief.

Having reviewed the pleadings, file, and record in this case, and the findings and conclusions of the magistrate judge, the court determines that the findings and conclusions are correct. The magistrate judge's findings and conclusions are therefore accepted as those of the court. The court therefore dismisses the writ of habeas corpus with prejudice.

Considering the record in this case and pursuant to Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 22(b), Rule 11(a) of the Rules Governing §§ 2254 and 2255 proceedings, and 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c), the court denies a certificate of appealability. The court accepts and incorporates by reference the magistrate judge's report filed in this case in support of its finding that Petitioner has failed to show:

(1) that reasonable jurists would find this court's "assessment of the constitutional claims debatable or wrong;" or (2) that reasonable jurists would find "it debatable whether the petition states a valid claim of the denial of a constitutional right" and "debatable whether [this court] was correct in its procedural ruling." Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S. 473, 484 (2000).^{*} In the event that Petitioner files a notice of appeal, she must pay the $455 appellate filing fee or submit a motion to proceed in forma pauperis.

It is so ordered this 27th day of January, 2010.

Sam A. Lindsay
United States District Judge

^{*}Rule 11 of the Rules Governing §§ 2254 and 2255 Cases, as amended effective on December 1, 2009, reads as follows:

- (a) Certificate of Appealability. The district court must issue or deny a certificate of appealability when it enters a final order adverse to the applicant. Before entering the final order, the court may direct the parties to submit arguments on whether a certificate should issue. If the court issues a certificate, the court must state the specific issue or issues that satisfy the showing required by 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2). If the court denies a certificate, the parties may not appeal the denial but may seek a certificate from the court of appeals under Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 22. A motion to reconsider a denial does not extend the time to appeal.
- (b) Time to Appeal. Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 4(a) governs the time to appeal an order entered under these rules. A timely notice of appeal must be filed even if the district court issues a certificate of appealability.
